Thank you to the teachers for staying late today and tomorrow to offer spring parent/teacher conferences. This makes for a long two days. I am so grateful for their dedication. Please remember that these are 10 minute conferences. If you need longer, kindly request a meeting at another time. *Middle school parents, only sign up for two teachers. If you would like to speak with more than two teachers, reach out for a meeting another time. *

The book fair is going well! Please remember to put money on your child's account for when they visit as a class. It is open until 3:30 everyday and until 5:30 on Thursday.

Next week is the holiest week of the year. It begins with Palm Sunday mass. Please check the bulletin for all of the spiritual opportunities in church next week. The teachers have been asked to give limited homework so your families can honor this special week. There are no practices or meetings next week.

This Sunday is the Mostaccioli Dinner. If we sell 400 meals, there will be an all school treat! Please support St. Ambrose Forever as they are so good to our school and families. Click HERE to purchase tickets or donate.

We will dismiss at noon on Thursday, April 17. There is no lunch served or aftercare this day.
