

✦ Saint Ambrose Weekly ✦

A Family of Faith, A Focus on Learning, A Foundation of Tradition

From our Principal

Saint Ambrose Families:

This week, I am excited to introduce Wolves of the Week. Wolves of the Week are students who, like wolves, are loyal, kind, intelligent, cooperative, and caring. Honoring wolves of the week ensures that we are honoring students not only for their prowess in academics, sports, or fine arts, but also for being good people. This is a way to honor small acts that can have a big impact on the days of others.

Wolves of the Week will receive a certificate, get mentioned in my weekly newsletter and will receive a shout out during the Friday afternoon announcements. If you spot any Saint Ambrose students being kind or making the world a better place, please feel free to nominate them to me at my email address.

Have a great long weekend!

God Bless,
Dr. Patrick Holley

Wolves of the Week

Mrs. Hartman would like to nominate Jack A., 2nd grade. Jack is always following the rules in the classroom. He always listens while others are talking and works hard every day.

Mrs. Cunningham would like to nominate Crew D., Kindergarten. He has been helpful in the classroom whenever she asks for volunteers to help and has assisted students in the classroom when they have questions about procedures.

Ms. Watson would like to nominate Sofia P., 3rd grade, Miss Watson's class, for helping a new student get acclimated. Helping him with routines and curriculum that we're familiar with but the new students need a little extra help getting started.

Mrs. Polizzi would like to nominate Allison S., 1st grade for complimenting a classmate on their drawing.

Mrs. Lammert would like to nominate Grant M. and Maks H. from Goretti. Both young men willingly helped a 6th grader get organized. They stayed after the bell rang to help him and were incredibly patient.

Mrs. Ruggeri would like to nominate Jack M. in her 2nd grade class. Jack has been going out of his way to help around the classroom. He picks things up even when he doesn't make a mess. He has been a great example to others in following classroom procedures and rules. He has been very welcoming to our new students.

Mrs. Tracy would like to nominate Aria T., 4th grade because she has truly shown the virtue of grace in action this week. On two separate occasions, Aria went out of her way to help a classmate without being asked. When we were returning from church on Monday Aria stopped in the middle of the parking lot to help Classmate tie her shoe. Another beautiful moment happened after Aria finished her NWEA assessment. She invited a friend to sit with her and then read the story aloud to her. Her grace, patience, and willingness to help others truly shone through this week.

Mrs. Miklovik would like to nominate Leonard S., 4th Grade. He approached a classmate that was injured and upset at recess to see if she was ok and he also walked her inside to Nurse Bill's office.

More information about the Bellarmine Speech League will be coming soon!
