A Family of Faith, A Focus on Learning, A Foundation of Tradition

From our Principal

Saint Ambrose Families:

Please join me in congratulating Ms. Ann Miklovic. Ms. Miklovic has been nominated for and won the St. Louis Post Dispatch Teacher of the Month Award. Ms. Miklovic was awarded this honor because of her enthusiasm and artistic talent for teaching art. I can personally attest to Ms. Miklovic's capacity for teaching to students of all levels, and her passion for making sure that every student is seen and loved. Ms. Miklovic will have an article written about her in today's St. Louis Post Dispatch. Please check it out!

I encourage all of you also to participate in our 54th annual Ravioli Dinner to benefit the Sick and Elderly Program of the Hill. This is a wonderful opportunity to give back to those in our community who are most in need. Please consider purchasing a ticket or making a donation.

God Bless,

Dr. Patrick Holley

WOLVES OF THE WEEK

Sister Maureen would like to nominate Mikey T. (7), Margaret J. (6), and Andrew B. (7). Each morning notices these three students consistently taking chairs down in their classroom and getting the room ready for the day without complaint! Keep up the good work!

Mrs. Entrikin would like to nominate Tommy K. in 1st grade. He sets a positive example for those around him. He always participates and offers to help his classmates. He is a very patient and kind friend to everyone. She also wants to nominate Gloria M. (1st Grade) for showing kindness and patience by helping a classmate who was frustrated solving a math problem. Gloria was a thoughtful friend and a great example of helping others!

Mrs. Hartman would like to nominate Ava A. in second grade. Ava shows grace by treating classmates with kindness, patience, and respect, following the example of Jesus. She demonstrates a loving and forgiving heart by including others, offering help, and making good choices.

Mrs. Polizzi would like to nominate Olivia B., 1st grade - Olivia saw a student upset that he couldn't find his pencil at the start of our Math lesson. She helped him look in his desk and when they weren't able to find one, she offered one of her extras. She helped this student not get flustered so he could keep up with the class, while remaining quiet and not disruptive.

Mrs. Tracey would like to nominate Kasia R. and Carter H. for Wolves of the Week! Both students consistently come to class ready to learn and stay focused and on task throughout the day. They work hard, take pride in their learning, and are always kind and helpful to their classmates. They are also fabulous readers and can almost always be found with a book in their hands! Kasia and Carter are wonderful examples of what it means to be responsible, hardworking, and kind members of our classroom community.

Mrs. Dueker would like to nominate Adam M. for always following directions in the classroom the first time asked and showing respect to those around him.

Mrs. Lammert would like to nominate Madeline G. (5) and Simon R. (7) who immediately volunteered to help her bring all of my "stuff" to the classroom. She appreciates their joyful, servant hearts on a Monday morning. It was a beautiful way to begin the day!
