A Family of Faith, A Focus on Learning, A Foundation of Tradition

From our Principal

Saint Ambrose Families,

We have a couple of wonderful events coming up this weekend. First we have the enthronement of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Mass tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. Our parish has a deep and historic tradition of honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Please consider joining us this Friday, with the Apostles of the Sacred Heart, to continue this devotion.

We also have our annual Trunk or Treat this Sunday from 4:00-6:00 on the soccer lot. This event is a lot of fun and all proceeds go to support our PTO organization. I know that the Student Council will be working hard to create their Haunted Hallway in the school.

Just a reminder that next Thursday, October 29th, will be a 12:15 p.m. dismissal with Parent Teacher conferences beginning at 1:00 p.m. There will be no school Friday, October 30.

God Bless,

Dr. Patrick Holley

Wolves of the Week

Mrs. Mahanay would like to nominate Henry Butz. Henry is kind to others and is always helpful to his classmates and his teachers. He finished his work early and asked if it would be ok if he reorganized our class closet. He cleaned and organized the whole closet for our class. His kindness and generosity are truly a blessing to our classroom!

Mrs. Duab would like to nominate Paddy Holley for Wolf of the Week! During the intruder drill, several of his friends were very nervous and worried. He took it upon himself to comfort and hug his worried friends, and be calm for everyone. He was conscientious of the situation and practiced the drill like the cool kid he is. Great job, Paddy.

Mrs. Daub would also like to nominate Ellie Winter. She is helpful and always has a positive attitude. She was a huge help with organizing the youth group shelves and kept everyone else on track.

Ms. Watson would like to nominate Elsie Burkhart. She has been helping others, is always kind to everyone, and faces the day with a positive attitude. Great job, Elsie!

Mrs. Steffens would like to nominate Caleb Donovan for Wolf of the Week! On Tuesday, while our class was lined up to leave school, Caleb noticed paper scraps on the floor. Without being asked, he stepped out of line to pick them up, even though the mess wasn't his. Caleb showed responsibility and kindness by taking the initiative to help keep our classroom clean!

Mrs. EntriKin would like to nominate Josephine Raines, she follows directions and does her very best work. She is always kind to friends and teachers.

Mrs. Cunningham would like to nominate Dominic Gurtowski as a big helper in the classroom. He notices when students and teachers need a helping hand and will offer to assist them!

Mrs. Tracy would like to nominate Maggie Dimza for Wolf of the Week because she is incredibly responsible and consistently completes her work. When she finishes, she never distracts others; instead, she generously offers to help classmates finish their work or explain concepts they may be struggling to understand. Maggie is a wonderful example of a helpful, kind, and thoughtful classmate who makes our classroom a better place!

Mrs. Hartman would like to nominate Izzy Calcaterra who has had a wonderful week at school! She worked hard, made good choices, and showed kindness to her classmates and teachers.

Mrs. Elmore would like to nominate Beatrice W., Rosie P., Annie A. and Harry M. in 3rd grade were in the Penthouse during the Intruder Drill this week. They did a great job following a different procedure.
